

2018 TxState AITP IT Symposium

Parent's Consent For Child's/Children's Participation Consent, Release and Indemnity Agreement

Child's Name:

School Name:

---

Activity: 2018 Texas State AITP IT Symposium

Activity Dates: Friday, October 19, 2018

Releases: The Board of Regents, Texas State University System, Texas State University, and all regents, employees, and agents of these entities.

Consent: Understanding the risks inherent in my child's participation in the Activity described above, I consent for my child to participate in this Activity, including travel to and from the Activity.

RELEASE: In consideration for the Releases facilitating my child's participation in the Activity, I release, discharge, and agree not to sue the Releases for any claims for injury (including death) to my child or damage to my child's property while participating in the Activity. This release includes all claims, whether or not caused by the negligence of the Releases, while my child is participating in the Activity or in traveling to and from the Activity.

INDEMNITY: I also agree to indemnify and hold the Releases harmless from any loss, damage, liability, or costs that they may incur because of my child's participation in the Activity, whether caused by the negligence of the Releases or otherwise. For example, this indemnity agreement specifically includes losses that the Releases may incur as a result of my child injuring another person or damaging another person's property while participating in the Activity.

Use of CourseSites: Your child may choose to participate in one or more of the competition events associated with the IT Symposium and as a result, will be using an online Learning Management system called "CourseSites by Blackboard" which requires parental consent for a minor to use the service which is focused on the gathering and use of personally identifiable information as well as Blackboard reserving the right to provide you access to your student's account upon request. For the purposes of the IT Symposium, at no time will any personally identifiable information about your child be gathered as they will be assigned a team name/number and the judging and any recognition of the submitted solutions of your child's competition work will be tracked through the use of a team number assigned at the time they check-in to compete in one or more competition events.
